COMMUNITY PROGRAM(S) SERVED

The organization(s) listed here will receive the grant money if the nominee is selected as a Champions of Home Impact Awards recipient. If the nominee's work involves more than one organization, please complete all information requested, then select "add another" at the bottom of the page. You will be asked to provide the same information for both organizations. Should the nominee be selected as a winner or honoree, the grant will be divided equally between the two organizations.

Please note: Only 501(c)(3) nonprofits in good standing are eligible to receive grant monies. To qualify for consideration, all applicable registrations and filings must be up to date (the organization must be currently registered with the California Attorney General's Office and have active status under the California Secretary of State.)
